Document ID	PDOC-005
Version	1.0
Effective From	24-11-2007
Revision History	24-11-2007, version 1

1. We do respect the deep rooted and varied linguistic culture of India and all its people. At the same time, we also acknowledge the real world benefits that are conferred on a person having superior skills in the English language. In particular, we acknowledge the fact, in a rapidly globalizing world, knowledge of English is a must.
2. All instruction in the classroom and laboratories must be carried out in English.
3. All notices and correspondence will be English.
4. All teaching and non-teaching associates are encouraged to talk to students only in English.
5. All teaching and non-teaching associates are encouraged to undergo formal training to improve their communication skills in English.
6. The spelling conventions will be North American English as far as possible. Prefer "color" over "colour". Prefer "rationalize" over "rationalise". Prefer "pediatrics" over "paediatrics".
